Free Spirit

Embrace a personal fashion style with fabrics by three fabulous FreeSpirit designers. If you haven't transitioned to sewing clothing yet, now is the time to create something wonderful to wear!

Zandra Rhodes' distinctive cotton fabrics reflect her memories with frilly flowers, zigzag stars and meandering wiggles that can be magically sewn together in a myriad of ways.

Anna Maria Horner inspires us with beautiful voiles, rayons and knits in prints that are a balm for the soul. There is something for everyone, from sweet to sophisticated.

And Heather Bailey offers rayons and voiles that allow you to make a statement with a vintage vibe. Her modern colors and prints combine for easy, confident style.
